He has had a long and productive membership in several inner-bodies at El Jebel Shrine where he is currently serving as Potentate and as the newest board member for the Shriners Hospital for Children in Salt Lake City.

The Golden Years

I worked forty-five years for someone else so that I could retire.

I dreamed of sleeping late and sitting by the fire.

I dreamed of long vacations, enjoying stage and song. But, let me set you straight on that concept, it is simply wrong.

I did junk my safety glasses and the work boots that cramped my toes. But, the rest of it had a mind of its own and this is how it goes.

My wife had been thinking of retirement and had plans of her own. She had spent much time with the kids, but now they are grown and gone.

We sold our cattle and horses so we wouldn't have that chore. I poured concrete over my alarm clock, but I still wake up at four.

I get my eyes checked on Monday. Ann gets hers checked the next day. I go for a colon check on Wednesday and pass my wife going the other Way.

I have a dental appointment on Thursday. Ann goes for a test on her heart. Friday we go get prescriptions filled and browse a while at Walmart.

Saturdays we just stay home and try to get the paperwork right. We can't take any overnight trips 'cause we can't see to drive at night.

Restroom confusion keeps us out of church on Sunday and we really do hate that. There's nothing wrong with the restrooms, we just can't remember where they're at.

We don't need to plan next week, just make sure we can drive and not forget where the hospitals and clinics are. We'll need them to survive.

So, don't build your castles too high, my friend, while strolling through the clover. This is a typical week in retirement and Monday we start all over!

Author unknown

Roy Ashworth Snyder – Roy is a two time Past Master of Park Hill Lodge #148 and current Worshipful Master of Memorial Lodge #1. He is the Orator for the Rocky Mountain Chapter of Rose Croix and serves on the Funeral team. He is an active member of all three York Rite Bodies plus the Allied Masonic Degrees, York Rite College and Masonic Officers Association.

Jack Davis White – Jack is a Past Master of Garfield Lodge #50 and now a member of Longs Peak Lodge #197. He is a District Lecturer for the Grand Lodge of Colorado in District #52. Since joining the Scottish Rite he has been an active member of the Makeup Committee for the reunions. Currently he is the director of the 30°, 3rd Apartment where he is also a cast member when needed. He holds the title of Non-Medical Coordinator for the 9 News Health Fair coordinating the volunteers for the Denver Scottish Rite event.

Samuel Lee Wittner – Sam is a Past Master and current Secretary of Albert Pike Lodge #117. He is a tireless worker during the reunions on the Costume Committee along with the Communications Committee. He is the Secretary/Treasurer for the Classic Cars at El Jebel Shrine and has served as President of the Radops and as a Chief Aide for the Potentate.

The ingredients of happiness are so simple that they can be counted on one hand. Happiness comes from within, and rests most securely on simple goodness and clear conscience.

From the Secretary's Desk

by Claud E. Dutro, 33°, Secretary

We crowded so much into the September meeting that we had to postpone some of the business to October so that we could keep our goal of closing the building by 9:00 pm.

Brother Doug Cline, 32°, received a Master Craftsman completion certificate and pin from the Honorable, Illustrious and Most Worshipful Stephen M. Munsinger, 33° Active, Sovereign Grand Inspector General of Colorado, who remarked that completion of this educational program should be within the reach of all members because of the example set by this 83 year old who is also a 57 year member.

The May reunion class was well represented and each member received their patent from the Supreme Council and their Denver Consistory name badge. Reunion photographs from John Moreno, 33°, were delivered to those who had ordered them. Our hope is that you will have a better chance to get to know these new members during upcoming stated meetings and the November reunion.

The Scottish Rite Foundation

annual program followed the above presentation. Four scholarships for advanced study were presented by Illustrious Brother Vern Ingraham, 33° Grand Cross, Executive Secretary of the Scottish Rite Foundation, with two presented to graduate students from the University of Colorado and two presented to graduate students from Colorado State University. All recipients expressed their appreciation and a desire to contribute to their field of early child development in Colorado.

The Scottish Rite Foundation also recognized

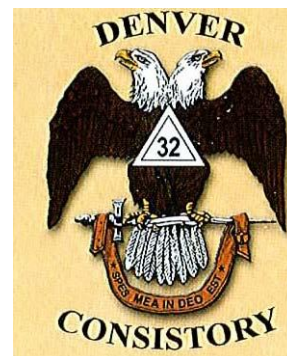

Illustrious Brother Robert W. Gregory, 33°, as recipient of their 2011 Distinguished Service Award for his contributions during the past several years.

Our Next

Stated Meeting is October 17th and will feature Chef Michael's pot roast and an historic Scottish Rite Feast of Tishri performance that was last presented in Rocky Mountain Consistory. At the November stated meeting the featured entertainment program will be a new Masonic Tribute to the Armed Forces. This will be the first performance of this original program and will involve many members in the presentation. You won't want to miss this if you or a family member ever served in the military.

Services for Illustrious and Most Worshipful U. Dean Mathena, 33° will be held Saturday, October 15, 2011 at the Darrell Howe Mortuary, 1701 W South Boulder Road, Lafayette, CO - (303) 665-5518 - at 11:00 AM.

Lessons along the Journey

After a short time in this journey we call the search for truth, you suddenly realize that you are reaching markers or milestones along the way. These guideposts, for lack of a better term, show your progress, where you need to go yet and offers a chance for you to see exactly where you are in your journey.

Every individual has these, they may show themselves in a different order; but they are common to all. Here are a few; see if your search has taken you to any of these yet:

- To our Scottish Rite, where are it all starts

- Enjoying the dramas, finding the communicated degrees not as interesting
- Learning about the rituals and becoming more involved
- Reading and studying more on topics that interest you
- Realizing that there are multiple layers of information within each of the degrees

- Trying to read Morals and Dogma – but not getting too far
- Seeing more every time you view a degree
- Learning what you see may not be all there is and more exploration is needed
- Having veils of knowledge move and reveal small truths that fascinate and encourage you
- Realizing that purity goes with the journey
- You add prayer to your routine (a part of “knocking, seeking and finding” that helps in the search)
- Your small collection of books grows
- Find yourself at lectures, which gives a different perspective
- Realize that what you have started is a life long journey which is not for those who need quick results
- May become lonely, since you cannot find another who is in the same search at your exact level

- Come to the conclusion that perseverance is a characteristic that we need in all this – it can not be accomplished without it

- Feel it is not the external rewards that you get the most from but the internal ones that also show in your life and actions
- Come to a resolve that being alone is not as bad as you first thought
- Noting that others who came before you have come to the same conclusions you have (You are on the right track when this happens!)
- Look for others who you see doing the same thing
- Add truth on top of truth to get the deeper meanings that are found in what we teach.
- Finding yourself where you never thought you would be and knowing it took all the steps you went through to get you where you are
- Finally thinking that Freemasonry is not an end in itself, but a way or process

So, how did you do? Are there some markers I missed? Have I scared you off from this journey? I hope not. Every person you see around you is somewhere in their steps toward betterment or enlightenment and could be doing well or reached a plateau in their journey.

Each of us needs to find where our souls and minds logically take us in this path. Yours will be different than the person setting next to you, but that is how it is to be. The G.A.O.T.U. made you like no other and the trip you are on will be the same way - unique.

Look for and note the way markers in your life. They will help you realize how far you have come and point to where the future is for you.

Just My Opinion ...

by D. J. Cox, 33°

Kids fascinate me. They are just so darned honest and keep perspectives simple. I came across this recently and thought it made the point perfectly. Anyway, that's my opinion.

My Favorite Animal

Our teacher asked us what our favorite animal was, and I said, "Fried chicken.."

She said I wasn't funny, but she couldn't have been right, because everyone else in the class laughed.

My parents told me to always be truthful and honest, and I am. Fried chicken is my favorite animal. I told my dad what happened, and he said my teacher was probably a member of PETA. He said they love animals very much. I do, too. Especially chicken, pork and beef. Anyway, my teacher sent me to the principal's office. I told him what happened, and he laughed, too. Then he told me not to do it again.

The next day in class my teacher asked me what my favorite live animal was. I told her it was chicken. She asked me why, just like she'd asked the other children. So I told her it was because you could make them into fried chicken.

She sent me back to the principal's office again. He laughed, and told me not to do it again. I don't understand. My parents taught me to be honest, but my teacher doesn't like it when I am.

Today, my teacher asked us to tell her what famous person we admire most. I told her, "Colonel Sanders."

Guess where I am now...

AS A MASON, WHENCE COME YOU?

by Wor. Bernard E. Triano
Harmony Lodge No. 8
Andover, New Jersey

The search for our beginnings is a right and noble cause,

There are numerous writings available that surely give us pause.

*Should you become discouraged and your efforts
begin to falter,
Look to the center of the Lodge room, the answer
is on our Alter.*

*No matter what we call it, no matter its religious
preaching's,
It speaks of that which we espouse, as our Fraternity's true teachings.*

*The Great Light that is displayed there, guides us
thru each and every day,
It starts with "In the beginning", and from its teachings we should not stray.*

*Practice what you find there, along with the lessons of our three degrees,
Remember that your efforts are being recorded on the trestle board He sees.*

*From that darkness in the beginning, when He said "Let there be Light",
There was set in motion a way of life, we know to be just and right.*

*Look there for all the guidance, laid down by the original Sage,
If you have yet to find the answer, just read
another page.*

*The GAOTU may not have had Masonry in his original scheme,
But wise and virtuous men soon expounded on His theme.*

*The Square and the Compasses, and the Sacred
Volume of Law,
Were not by some coincidence, the first items a new Mason saw!*

*The writings of various learned men have suggested many a possible source,
But that book upon our Alter has, from the very beginning, set our course.*

The answer to "Where do we come from?" a consensus may never be heard, Rest assured my Masonic Brothers, that it was founded on His sacred Word!

*So while searching through Masonic books, when you are home at night,
Do not overlook the obvious, the one we Masons
refer to as the "The Great Light"*

*If industry and zeal attend your labors yet you still wonder from whence we came,
The Bible, the Koran, the Torah, and Sutra, are filled with our founders name!*
