"This Internet thing is really just a FAD"

Bill Klatil, 33°

Shrimp Boil - The annual Shrimp Boil was one of the best-attended in the last few years. We started the evening with an installment of our "Let There Be Light" program, providing information about how the State of Colorado handles abandoned property left in safety deposit boxes and a talk by a Brother Mason who was directly involved with the Hunt Brothers and their activities with the silver market. After the program, our attention turned toward food and conversation. High praise was expressed for the quality of the fare and the fellowship was enjoyed by all!

All Masonic Community Picnic and Car Show - will be held on Saturday, August 16th from 11:00 am to 2:00 pm at the Eastern Star masonic Retirement Community at 2445 S. Quebec Street, in Denver. You never know who you will run into. This event provides fun, food, activities and entertainment for all ages.

Scottish Rite Fellows - Our valley will be sending our two Fellows, Keith Anderson, 32° (left) and Darren Klinefelter, 32° (right) to Washington DC on August 15 and 16 to meet with the SGC, Ronald Seals, 33° (Active), to discuss challenges and perspectives from their point of view. The Valley of Denver is proud of these two designates and have great confidence in their ability to represent the Denver Consistory.

Chiller Project - The chiller was installed, just in time for the Spring Reunion. The comfort levels at the Consistory have been MUCH improved. THANK YOU to everyone who contributed to this much-needed project. It will provide one less distraction in the environment of our activities in the Cathedral Room (auditorium).

Upcoming Events

Officers summer planning meeting, 6:00 pm August 20th at the Consistory. This is a chance for your officers to look back and to the future to plan the direction of the Consistory.

Calling Committee event, scheduled for a Saturday in August. If you have not been involved with this activity, you are missing out. If you are interested, contact Rick Wenzel, 32°, wenzelr2001@yahoo.com. Talking with your brothers presents opportunities to connect with good men.

Ambassador's meeting, September 11. Every Scottish Rite Mason should be an Ambassador for the Rite. This committee is composed of brothers who will give and take information from the Consistory and interface with the Blue Lodges. If you are interested in helping on this committee, please contact the Secretary at: bill@denverconsistory.org.

All Scottish Rite Masons in good standing are entitled to have a Rose Croix Funeral service at the time of their passing. Members should advise their families of their wishes to have this beautiful service. It is a very dignified service intended to help bring comfort to the family.

Masonic Band Camp Is 2nd Place In The Greeley Stampede Parade

The 13th Annual Colorado Masonic High School Band Camp was held June 30 to July 4, in Greeley, Colorado. Masonic Lodges, Masonic Family groups and Friends sponsored the students. The band was made up of 101 students selected by their band directors from 51 High Schools throughout the state of Colorado. If selected the students come free except for transportation to and from Greeley.

Music activities of the band were under the supervision of Dr. Richard Mayne, Dr. Kevin Droe and other members of the music faculty and staff of the University of Northern Colorado. The chaperones are members of the Masonic family volunteering their time to host and watch over the students.

The Band performed a free public Concert in the UNC Student Union on July 3, and marched in the Greeley Stampede Parade accompanied by Grand Master, Michael L. McMillan, and many of the Grand Lodge Officers on July 4th. The streets were lined with thousands of spectators. The Band's banner was carried by members of Job's Daughters from Greeley followed by three Chaperones dressed as colonials carrying the flags of our Country and State.

Mrs. Mildred Jones of the Grand Lodge staff was recognized at the Concert with a bouquet of flowers for her hard work, skill, and many efforts supporting the Band.

A few years ago year the Band Camp established the Harry L. Lindstrom, Jr. Scholarship. This is a program in conjunction with the University of Northern Colorado Pride of the Rockies Marching Band that is under the direction of Dr. Richard Mayne. The Scholarships consist of two $1,000.00 matching grants. Dr. Richard Mayne the director of the Pride of the Rockies Marching Band, matches the Band's $1,000 and two recipients receive $1,000 each. The scholarship commemorates Harry L. Lindstrom Jr. who was one of the founders of the Band Camp.

The Band camp is a 501(c)3 Tax exempt organization and any financial support is greatly appreciated.

Masonic Band Camp members learn to march.

“Silence Is Golden”

Vide, Aude, Tace [Latin: Know, Dare, Be Silent]

Silence, obedience, and fidelity are the first three principles found in the Scottish Rite's degrees. They are surrounded by thoughts on Hiram's death, dualism, the Kabbalah, and all the excitement of the start of a great journey in our Reunions. All three principles are also taught in the Blue Lodge setting, two of them are put to the forefront over and over. One is always in the background—silence. Maybe that is the best place for it. Silence is not an active characteristic that gets much glory and fanfare. Yet here it is, at the start of our journey, and solidly important. Silence is much more than keeping secrets. It is a way of life, a way to progress through it and a principle that affects all else that we do.

Why am I putting such an emphasis on such a small, simple part of a much larger theme? I find that learning to be silent, to be able to use that silence to your advantage and to get the most out of this is much harder than we like to admit. Silence should be your friend. Yet, it is crowded out so easily by the world. Silence is pushed out by chaos and all the noise which seems to surround us. In a time where every popular star is loose and free with their personal information or they look for opportunities to expose others, Masons are encouraged to do the opposite.

BETWEEN THE COLUMNS - CONTINUED

Silence is what you have many times when you are alone. When was the last time you were REALLY alone—away from the television, your radio or a cell phone (or any form of them)? This is hard to do these days, everyone wants a piece of you and your time; they want to be in instant contact with you and demand your attention. Silence is about keeping secrets, not sharing principles we have been taught with outsiders; but it can also be a way to learn. The regular definition of this word is much different than the Masonic use of it. Webster's gives the following normal definition:

*The state of being silent; entire absence of sound or noise; absolute stillness.
Forbearance from, or absence of, speech; taciturnity; muteness.*

I used to think silence was just the first step of many and not that important as you progress in regards to other principles taught us. Lately, I am realizing that silence is an important part of who we need to be. When Aristotle was asked what was the most difficult for him, he replied "to be secret and silent." Do you want to learn about the Scottish Rite? The mystery religions, or eternal truth? Learn to put yourself in a place and state of mind to be separate and silent. This simple act will free up mind space and help you to find what you desire. The time taken to do this will open up many new paths to your learning and it will surprise you what will enlighten your mind.

Secrecy and silence do go well together. They complement each other and help the seeker to find what he desires. They are like Boaz and Jachin. Yet, many never think of silence as a part of anything. Silence seems to be what you leave behind, what you work against and what you seek to replace. Yet, learning how to develop this helps you to slow down, open your mind and to concentrate, multi-tasking does not go well with this principle. Be single-minded, quiet and specific. Silence will reward you with ideals and thoughts that you never could have imagined. It will be a help, and a preparation to many good things. Don't let the world confuse you in this - silence is important. It has been misunderstood for many years as unprofitable, a "lack of" instead of something else better, and an unwanted aspect of life. Silence is not what most think it is. Learn to have it become a part of your life. Be comfortable with it and embrace it.

Some things are silent for the wrong reasons, like this abandoned Masonic Lodge.

The Fourth Degree –Secret Master

By John Warren, 33°

(NOTE: The Fourth Degree is the third to be profiled for RiteWorks and the Newsletter, with the 30° and 32° Degrees to follow within the next few months.)

The work of the Scottish Rite is to inspire and teach man that he must improve, refine, and perfect himself. The degrees are a journey towards ever broadening horizons of knowledge and teach of a nobler Virtue, Honor, and Truth.

From *A Bridge to Light*¹, we know that the 4° through 14° are called the “Ineffable Degrees” because their principal purpose is the investigation and contemplation of the ineffable name of Deity. The word ineffable derives from Latin ineffabilis which means something which should not be spoken.

The Deity is thus not an object of knowledge, but of faith, not to be approached by the understanding, but by the moral sense; not to be conceived, but to be felt. The 4° emphasizes duty, fidelity, Integrity, and the necessity for secrecy in all confidential relationships.

Prior to the exemplification of this degree, the Class of new Brothers is told that the Degree opens with the sadness and sorrow that followed the untimely death of our Grand Master Hiram Abif. They are told that as they begin their journey towards spiritual knowledge, that their eyes are enabled to discern truth from error.

The class is instructed on their obligations as Masons to serve their fellow man and their Country. They are informed that they must work for work’s sake without thought of reward or recognition.

What follows these instructions is the exemplification of the 4° in dramatic form. This dramatic form is enhanced by the period costumes worn by the actors, the elocution of the actors, the props used, the lighting and sound provided by the Audio/Visual crew, and of course, by the accompanying music.

Music often can add to the effectiveness of this or any other degree as well as for the enjoyment of the audience. Denver Consistory is fortunate in having a crew capable of providing pre-recorded music as needed, as well as having a live band. Caution should be taken to determine when pre-recorded music is more appropriate to the action on the floor and when “live” music is best. One “size” does not fit all occasions.

Acting techniques used by the actors in the 4° can send a message without words. The primary mood of the 4° is sorrow. The Lodge is in mourning for the death of Hiram. It is important not to let the pace of this degree drag. The pace should be slow, but the energy level high.

Thus, our new Brothers witness their first Scottish Rite Degree, exemplified for them, using everything the Consistory has to offer: actors, props, music, lighting and sound ... as they begin their journey seeking knowledge and understanding.

Go now and hear what you shall hear and see what you shall see and witness the Fourth Degree, Secret Master!

Think driving “distracted” isn’t that big a problem? Well, a movie theater got its audience to use their phones so it could teach them a lesson. Take a look at just how risky it is to use a mobile phone, let alone text, while you are driving.

THE PRELATE'S PULPIT

Rev. Jim Harris, 32° KCCH

Masonic funeral services were recently held for Past Grand Master, Ill R. Keith Milheim, 33° in what we have called the “auditorium.” For several years, I have been suggesting changing the name of the auditorium to a more meaningful name. Recently, the Executive committee voted to change the name of the auditorium to its original name, “The Cathedral Room.” Many Scottish Rite Centers are currently called Masonic Cathedrals. Despite their name and appearance, they are NOT churches. They are Masonic meeting halls intended for the ceremonies and rituals of Freemasonry. They are also used as venues for other non-Masonic events such as concerts, meetings, and so on.

Masons have traced their lineage to the guild organizations of the stoneworkers who built the great cathedrals of Europe. Many of the cathedrals contain masonic symbols. The English word “cathedral” has its root meaning as “assembly.” I have felt a presence when we gather for our stated meetings as brothers who have a special connection. We gather in the “Cathedral Room” for our reunions, concerts, funerals, and other activities. It is a special place and the current name change reflects that deeper meaning. It is where we gather to meet, to learn, to grow, and yes - to pray.

It is where we connect with the Supreme Architect of the Universe. Have a great summer and remember to stay positive and enjoy every new day.

1. Starting in October, we will host a different Masonic Scholar/Degree director at each meeting for an in-depth lecture/discussion of the Scottish Rite Degrees. Aaron Klostermeyer will give the first presentation in October on the 24th degree.
2. Due to the Labor Day Holiday falling on our normal stated meeting date, there will be NO SEPTEMBER KSA Meeting.

See you all in October. Don't forget about Burns' Supper planning for 2015 - It'll be here before you know it.

DARREN KLINEFELTER - Venerable Master

The Scottish Rite Masonic Center is hosting a monthly event called, "Let There be Light." It is an insight-filled program where members and others make short presentations and share insights and tips with others. All are invited, members, guests, neighbors, and family.

We believe that most members strive to improve themselves. They are constantly searching for information and enlightenment. What some of our members might really appreciate is a little insight on life. Scottish Rite Masons know from the 15th degree that the true treasures of Masonry lie within the knowledge, virtues, and experiences of our brethren. This is where your involvement is essential:

Imagine: Your son-in-law or other relative asks you for a private minute then asks: "In one year, my wife and I would like to have a better quality of life. Do you have any thoughts, observations, experiences, or knowledge that you can share to help us get there?"

If you had only 15 minutes to respond, what would you say? Would you have anything to say?

Your response could be about any topic, not just financial success. For example, you could share thoughts about finances, humor, the economy, music, culture, hygiene, compassion, international affairs, integrity, model railroading, etc. The only requirement is that you feel passionate about your topic.

NOW, WOULD YOU CONSIDER MAKING THAT 15-MINUTE PRESENTATION TO A GROUP?

Topics can fit into any of the following 5 categories:

- Personal development
- Professional development
- Masonic lessons practiced in real life
- Arts & culture
- Other

SPECIAL BULLETIN

Estes Park Masonic Lodge No. 183, A.F.& A.M. of Estes Park, Colorado, 1820 S. St. Vrain Ave (Highway 7), would like to extend an invitation to the members and family members of your organization to join with many other Masonic bodies in marching in this year's Longs Peak Scottish - Irish Highland Festival in Estes Park, Colorado. The date of the parade event is, Saturday, September 6, 2014 (the Saturday following Labor Day) and will start at 9:30 A.M on the west end of Elkhorn Drive and go through the main part of town and terminate at the Visitor's Center on the east side of town (approx. one mile). This event is advertised as the largest all Celtic parade in North America. Parade participants are encouraged to park at the Estes Park Visitors Center and then walk to the west-end of Elkhorn Drive to gather for the parade lineup.

Following this event at, 1 P.M., our lodge will be sponsoring an 18-hole "scramble" golf tournament, organized by the Longs Peak Scottish/Irish Highland Festival, www.scotfest.com. Click on the "Saturday Golf Tournament Estes Park Golf Course \(Register Here\)" link. The cost is $95.00 per player or $380.00 per foursome to help support our local high school scholarship program. Each entry fee includes Green Fee and Cart, Range Balls and Snack Buffet afterwards and a 1-day Festival pass for Sunday September 7, 2014. Prizes and awards will be presented.

This invitation is being emailed to Colorado and Wyoming Masonic Lodges and associated Masonic bodies, in hopes of having a strong showing of Masonic brotherhood in this region. Picture, if you will, 100+ members representing Blue Lodges, Eastern Star, Scottish Rite, York Rite, Shriners, Jobs Daughters, Rainbow Girls, DeMolay and other bodies marching with their chapter banners raised high above them and right behind the Shriners El Jebel Pipe Band. What an awesome sight this would be. We will be marching behind the "Clan Masons" banner. A trailer or trolley with chairs may be available to those in need. So, think about it and mark your calendars so that you don't forget. And if you plan to march in the parade wear your Masonic apparel, i.e. apron, cape, etc. For additional information contact us at: estespark183@gmail.com or call WB Marvin Hart at: 970-222-6212.

A Masonic Information tent will be set up during this 3-day event, at the Festival Grounds, located at Stanley Park, to provide Masonic information brochures to those interested in learning more about Masonry and the different Masonic bodies. Volunteers to staff this tent are needed and if anyone is interested in helping please contact us at: estespark183@gmail.com.

The lodge building will be open all day on Saturday, September 6, as the Hospitality Meeting Place for all Masons, Masonic groups and their families. After the parade you can go to the Estes Park Masonic Lodge for some coffee, drinks, snacks and friendly Masonic conversation. Overnight "dry camping" for RVs will be allowed in our parking lot.

We ask that you communicate this to other Masons and members of the various Masonic bodies that you have contact with in your address book. We know this action may generate multiple emails, and we apologize for that, but we want to try to get a large showing in the parade and in the golf tournament – better to have multiple announcements than none at all.
