FEEDBACK !!!

Do YOUR part! We can't improve our meetings if you don't tell us what we're doing right, what we're doing wrong, and where you'd like to see improvements. And, you can't do that unless you actually come to a meeting and witness the changes we've TRIED to make the meetings more enlightening and informative - and occasionally even entertaining.

In the past, we have TRIED to solicit your honest input to help us make decisions and change things in an attempt to make the meetings more "relevant" and "interesting. But, when you realize that we have nearly 2500 members (of which, we KNOW about 1500 have email addresses), and MAYBE 150 respond to our SHORT surveys, it makes us wonder. After all, you don't have to drive to Denver to answer a few questions in a survey - there's no parking to worry about, there's no conflict with your lodge, chapter, assembly, or other body meetings. There's no real time away from family. It's simply letting us know what WE can do to make meetings something you would LIKE to attend, and telling us what you would like to take away with you when you leave.

We wonder WHY the members who continue to come, who continue to participate in committees, reunions, and activities do so - what do THEY get and take away? We wonder WHY some of our members do NOT participate in anything. After all, you paid your dues, and in some cases, you're a life member. The reasons people participate are just as varied as the reasons people do NOT participate.

What good is "membership" without the commitment to PARTICIPATE? It's just another card you can carry in your wallet. It's another "title" you can put after your name. But it rings HOLLOW if you don't actually USE that membership productively to improve yourself - after all, isn't that why we try to chip away all those rough ashlar imperfections to shape that "perfect ashlar" that we aspire to attain?

And, what is "commitment"? As our late Brother Randy Trullinger, 32° KCCH once told the story, the barnyard animals wanted to give the farmer a special day for taking care of them. All the animals talked about what they could do - chicken could lay eggs, cow could give milk, but when it came to the pig - he was a little more hesitant because the bacon was a COMMITMENT for him, not simply a "donation."

The next time we come and ask for your opinions in a survey - PLEASE RESPOND! We NEED your feedback!

Our Last Stated Meeting – We presented 25 and 50 year awards. By talking with these members we see their dedication. The five Brothers represented here are a small portion of the total number of qualified members. Many awards are in the mail. We thank the members who have reached these levels and hope to see you at future meetings.

50 Year recipients Jack Arnold, Don Schultz, Dudley Butler

25 Year recipients Lyle Adams and Perry Mittler

Next Stated Meeting - June 15 will be Hawaiian Shirt Night. This is a perfect night to “Bring a Brother to a meeting” who has not been for a while. Wouldn’t it be nice to see our Cathedral Room (meeting room) filled with Brothers? This casual meeting night will be a wonderful way to become reacquainted with friends and Brothers without worrying about what to wear.

Shrimp Boil – Our annual Shrimp Boil is coming in July. Reservations are trickling in. Saturday, July 18 is the date. We start the evening with our educational “Let There be Light” program at 5:00 pm and the dinner at 6:30 pm. Shrimp is not the only entrée on the menu. The Chicken Fingers and Sausage are tasty alternatives. Fun and fellowship are the fare of the day. The parking garage will be available.

Dues Notices – The second mailing for 2015 dues is out. We have many who have not paid. Please take a minute to check your dues card to see if you are current. Dues can be paid online with a link at our website www.denverconsistory.org . Thank you for being a member!

Consistory Hours - The Consistory office will close on each Friday at 1:00 pm until September 18th.

The Band Camp is coming. The week of July 4th in Greeley.

The 46th Reunion – is now complete. We have 11 new Masters of the Royal Secret. If you missed the presentations of the degrees, you missed many fine performances. The Denver Consistory is fortunate to have one of the best Degree Councils in the Southern Jurisdiction. For those of you who missed this reunion, we hope to see you in the fall. Now is the time to start working on those petitions for the next class. Come support your Consistory!

By Aaron Klostermeyer, 32° KCCH

First Rose Croix Education and Fellowship Dinner a Success

On March 20th, 2015, seventeen Scottish Rite Brethren gathered upstairs at Pint's Pub in Denver for education, discussion, and fellowship over a good meal and, perhaps, a pint or two. Brother Robin Knox, 32<sup>o</sup> KCCH and director of the 15th Degree, began the evening by presenting an excellent introduction to the characters, setting, history, and lessons found in the degree. Brother Knox spoke to some of the important ways that the degree relates to our lives and the world today, and how the degree was personally meaningful to him.

The brethren present listened intently, chewing quietly and focusing passed the background music to hear every word.

As Brother Robin completed his presentation, the environment was well primed for discussion. At first there was a pause. Then one brother offered an observation. Another asked a question. A third mentioned a connection between the characters of this degree and the York Rite. And soon, a very interesting and enjoyable group discussion ensued, with many of the brethren taking part to offer ideas or ask a question or share a perspective.

After the informal group discussion wound to a close, individual conversations and fellowship took over. At the end of the evening, brethren paid their bills and parted ways, happy and pleased with a fun and fulfilling evening. So went the first Rose Croix Education and Fellowship Dinner of the year. To all accounts it was a successful and worthwhile evening.

This was the first of four quarterly Rose Croix Education and Fellowship dinners this year. These are organized by the Rocky Mountain Chapter of Rose Croix as informal events for members of the Scottish Rite to learn about the degrees and about each other, in a fun and relaxing atmosphere. Each dinner will focus on a different Scottish Rite degree. While no "secrets" of the degrees will be revealed in these discussions, the discussions are intended to be semi-private and are for Scottish Rite members only, unless otherwise noted in advance.

Please join the fun and learn with us next time as we discuss the 16th Degree, "Prince of Jerusalem", at 7:00 pm on Friday, June 12th, at The Blue Bonnet mexican restaurant in Denver. Brothers Karl Koenig, 32<sup>o</sup> KCCH, and John Moreno, 33<sup>o</sup>, Director and Assistant Director of the 16th Degree, will co-present. Group discussion and fellowship will follow.

The Blue Bonnet Cafe is located at 457 S Broadway, Denver, CO 80209. We have the private room reserved and space is limited to 60 brethren. Please invite your Scottish Rite friends and RSVP to Senior Warden Scott Bates, 32<sup>o</sup> KCCH, at scott@scottbates.com ASAP.

We look forward to meeting you there!

QUALITY vs. QUANTITY

By Curtis A. Lipkie, 32°

(Ed. Note: Although Brother Curt refers to our Lodges and Grand Lodge, the message certainly applies to all Masonic groups to include Denver Consistory.)

"If you have something, anything, an ability of some kind, you want to use it. That, I think, is the essence of human living. The idea is to more in life. Money is nice, but it is not what makes you feel good." -----Palm Beach Post Newspaper

It is the human condition of man to want more, and to be the possessor and master of the material things that surround him. This is not a bad condition of man that we all share, for it is the drive that allows us to support ourselves, our families and provide for the relief of others.

But at some point in our lives, we start to appreciate the finer points of life and the things we choose to do and possess, where quality is just as important as quantity.

It is interesting that the words "quality" and "quantity" sound so similar to our ears, and differ in spelling by only a few letters, yet their meanings are so divergent to a thinking mind.

We make conscious and unconscious decisions everyday between picking quality over quantity, be it what we eat, or how we spend our time with our loved ones. How we make those decisions of quality versus quantity is a major factor that defines us as individuals.

When it comes to Masonry and our Lodges, do we make any "quality versus quantity" tradeoffs? Of course we do. We say that we "guard well the West Gate" and only accept good men into the Fraternity, yet the pressing and ever present question that dogs Masonic conversations in Lodge and Grand Lodge is "how do we get more Masons?"

It looks like we want to have our cake and eat it too, having quality and quantity. But does it always work out that way? Are we making Masons, or just more members of the Lodge? The future of Masonry hangs in the balance.

Every Lodge works diligently to put together the best program each year for its members, filled with dinners, speakers, communications, picnics, ball games, parades, youth groups and activities to get those valuable points to receive Honor Lodge recognition.

Sometimes, we become obsessed with doing just too much, and worrying about entertaining our members with a quantity of activities. Maybe we should judge ourselves on the number of individual moments in Lodge when a Brother silently says to himself "Aha, I think I get it, this is meaningful to me." How many quality moments do we really have in Lodge? How many quality moments have you had?

Quantity is easy to measure and count, but quality is a measure more judged by a thinking mind, such as the mind of a Mason. Be sure to spend your Masonic time wisely, be it in Lodge, over a cup of coffee with a Brother, or those supporting moments with a Brother who is having challenges in his life.

We can all use a little quality time.

WHAT IS A 33° MASON?

By John Warren, 33°

*“Give light and the people will find their own way.”
---Scripps-Howard Newspapers*

People ask a lot of questions about 33rd Degree Masons. Who are they? How did they get it? What do they do? And on and on and on. Hopefully, what follows will dispose of some of the myths and give you some facts.

In the Southern Masonic Jurisdiction, “Active” members of the Supreme Council are called “Sovereign Grand Inspectors General” – and those who have been honored with this degree but who are not members of the Supreme Council are referred to as “Illustrious Brother, 33rd Degree, Inspectors General Honorary.” To illustrate a significant difference, in the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction, all 33rd degree Masons are known as “Sovereign Grand Inspectors General” and are members of their Supreme Council but, at most, 67 are voting members.

There is an abundance of conspiracy theorists out there who believe that those Scottish Rite Brothers who are 33rd Degree Masons actually practice some sort of secret rituals hidden from common Blue Lodge Masons and plan to take over the world. What nonsense that idea is!

From masonicinfo.com, we learn that “When one looks critically at the membership of the Scottish Rite’s 33rd Degree, it would seem to most people that it’s the most unlikely group one would ever find out plotting to take over the world. That same website goes on to say, in part, that “...conjecture and imagination are amazing things and any similarities between truth and the claim of world-dominating 33rd Degree Masons are often deliberately blurred by Masonic Detractors...”

From The Northern Jurisdiction in The Valley of Detroit, we find that “The 33° is conferred upon those members of the 32° who have been outstanding in their contributions to Freemasonry, the Scottish Rite, or who have shown in their communities the leadership which marks them as men who exemplify in their daily lives the true meaning of the Brotherhood of man under the Fatherhood of God.”

This “criteria?” is much the same in the Southern Jurisdiction with the additional requirement of having been invested as a 32° Knight Commander of the Court of Honor (KCCH) and holding that Investiture for a minimum of four years before even becoming eligible for consideration for this high honor. There are certainly no guarantees that you will ever receive the 33rd Degree.

The 33rd Degree of the Scottish Rite is an HONORARY degree which is conferred for exceptional service to Freemasonry. To be selected at the Consistory level and actually elected by the Supreme Council is one of the highest honors a Scottish Rite Mason can receive. Those people who espouse theories to the contrary do a grave injustice to all who have been so honored.

We have all been told time after time after time that the highest degree we will ever receive is that of a Master Mason. The Blue Lodges tell us that. The Scottish Rite says that. The Shrine tells their new Nobles that.

I suspect those people coming up with these conspiracy ideas are those with an awful lot of free time on their hands and an almost total lack of understanding and knowledge of what Masonry is, in general, and Scottish Rite Masonry in particular. Perhaps Poet Wallace Stevens said it best when he commented: “Of what value is anything to the solitary and those that live in misery and terror, except the imagination.”

The next time you are at the Consistory (ANY Consistory) and come across a Brother wearing the White Hat, you know the he has labored long and hard in the quarries and is deserving of the honor conferred on him. Shake his hand.

There is an unintended consequence with being Honored as a 33° or being invested with the Knight Commander of the Court of Honor. I suspect that most Honorees who spend so much time doing whatever is needed at the Consistory, most likely haven't given much thought to how their activities may appear to some of our newer Brothers.

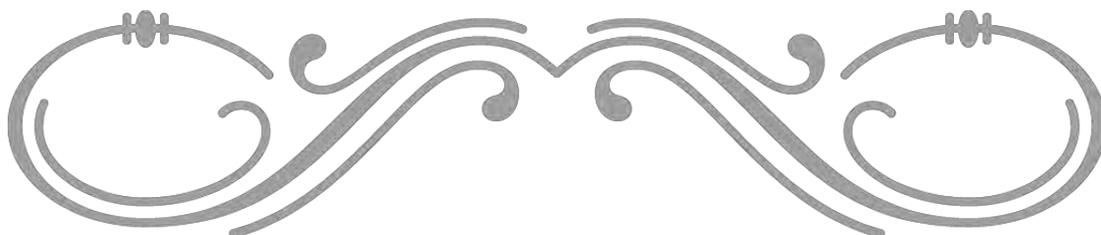

This situation caught my attention last October when Brother Darren Klinefelter, 32°, in his Oration during our Stated meeting, said, in part: “I heard something a few years ago from a Brother that got me thinking. He said that he didn't want to make an effort to get more active, and since the Red and White hats were taking care of everything, as they were so active, there really wasn't anything for him to do.”

Bro. Darren reassured the Brother that, yes, the Red and White hats are always busy around the Consistory, but were also busy while they wore a Black hat as well. He went on to say: “Even though our KCCH and 33rd degree members are very active, there is ALWAYS room for a 32nd degree member to get involved. There is nothing to stop you from participating in the myriad of activities that go on in our Consistory each and every week.”

I might add that the main focus of the Officer Line of which Brother Darren is a part of is Membership.

Those few comments should get us all to thinking. The Honorees should never forget from whence they came and be always ready to help those who ask for it.

(Ed. Note: A variety of sources were used in this article, including some from the Northern Jurisdiction, and a brief excerpt from “the Complete Idiot's Guide to Freemasonry,” by Ill. S. Brent Morris, 33° GC)

WHERE WERE YOU FOR
OUR SPRING 2015
REUNION?

THE PRELATE'S PULPIT

Rev. Jim Harris, 32° KCCH

Brothers: Micah is the thirty-third book of the Bible, and is placed sixth among the minor prophetic works. He was active probably between 715 and 700 B.C. in the Southern Kingdom during the reign of King Hezekiah. He discussed social injustice in rural Judah. He saw the oppression of the poor and concluded that something had to change. In Chapter 6, he writes one of the most quoted of all Biblical texts.

“What does the Lord require from you: to do justice, embrace faithful love, and walk humbly with our God.” As Scottish Rite Masons, we are about justice for all, we embrace love, and we walk humbly with God, the Supreme Architect of the Universe.

In Chapter 7, he writes the God does hold onto His anger and will bring light to those who sit in darkness. Spring is a wonderful time for us to let go of any anger in our lives and let God light up our lives.

Be Positive, Have Faith, and Walk Humbly With God.

Leadership starts from within. If you have integrity, nothing else matters. If you don't have integrity, nothing else matters.— Senator Alan Simpson

There are three types of men. Some who learn by reading, a few that learn by observation and the rest who just have to pee on the electric fence. - Will Rogers

The world is too complex today, too much going on, too many crimes, too much violence, too much excitement. Try as you will, you get behind in the race in spite of yourself. It is an incessant strain to keep pace, and still you lose ground. Science empties its discoveries on you so fast that you stagger beneath them in hopeless bewilderment. The political world is news seen so rapidly you're out of breath trying to keep current with who's in and who's out. Everything is high pressure.
