EDITOR'S CORNER

EMAIL: WA3H@HOTMAIL.COM

Well, our 50th consecutive Reunion is now in the books. Let's look forward to an active summer with our families and friends, and rejoining the activities in the fall. But, let's not forget that there are still things going on at the Consistory during the summer - take part when you can - you'll learn a lot about how things work in the building and what it takes to make this organization we all love work so smoothly. Thanks to the various volunteer crews, actors, propmeisters, choir, band, Charlie (organist), the stagecraft, sound, and lighting crews for all the work they put in to make the reunion a success. And, if I have missed anyone, I apologize, because it literally takes HUNDREDS of volunteers to make these reunions a success.

Meanwhile, I'm packing up for a trip to Nashville for a Navy veterans reunion, then back for a week or two, and a National Sojourners Annual Convention in Austin, then back for a week or two and up to my daughter's place in MT (and a trip into Canada), then the Consistory Family Dinner in July (a.k.a. Shrimp Boil), and then I'll be taking a long overdue trip with my oldest daughter to Scotland in August—she was born there while I was stationed at Edzell with the U. S. Navy—where I took my degrees in Masonry—from EA to KT. I'm sure it's changed since I left, but it will still be a magical return for us both.

So, if a RiteWorks is a bit late this summer, you know why.

FREEDOM

Oration by Minister of State
Denver Consistory
May 15, 2017

By: Timothy N. Lambert, 32°

Freedom is at the heart of many things held dear to me, as it should be for any American. For, without freedom, our very existence as a nation would be very different than it is today. As any military veteran, police officer, National Guardsman, or politician will tell you, it is, or very well should be, the purpose behind the decision that brought us to take that oath of service, which in the case of the military goes as such:

(Please feel free to stand and affirm the oath with me, or stay seated as you wish)

I, (name), do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office upon which I am about to enter. So help me God.

Freedom has never been, is not now, nor will it ever be, free. Since the first concept of personal freedoms, the Magna Carta has confirmed the right of freedom from tyranny, first presented to King John by certain nobles in England. While its purpose was to secure the rights of England's elite, its language was written in such a way as to protect due process and has been the guiding light of the fundamental principles of common law in constitutions around the world for the last 800 years.¹

The Declaration of Independence, being inspired by the Magna Carta, owes one-third of the Bill of Rights to the influences of the Magna Carta.

For example, the 39th clause of the Magna Carta states:

“No freeman shall be taken, imprisoned, disseised², outlawed, banished, or in any way destroyed, nor will we proceed against or prosecute him, except by the lawful judgment of his peers and by the law of the land,”

The equivalently penned Sixth Amendment reads:

“In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been

¹History.com, ASK History, “What is the Magna Carta” by Mariel Synana, June 19, 2013

²disseised (disseized): to deprive a person of the possession of land, especially by force

... committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense.”

The Scottish Rite of Freemasonry was first established in America, by Americans, for American Freemasons. No doubt, freedom was one of the things on Albert Pike’s mind when he gathered up the 32 degrees of the Scottish Rite to catalog them into his very entertaining, and “easy to read” manual of Scottish Rite Freemasonry entitled, “Morals and Dogma.” For, is it not taught over and over again, in degree after degree, that a person wishing to advance and receive the lessons of that particular degree should protect the rights and freedoms of others, to stand up and be counted among the freedom fighters, whether it be the freedom of religion, or the freedom of thought, or the freedom of choice?

Without such freedoms in existence, the Scottish Rite might very well not have been able to get started. It would have likely been (and in some cases actually was) persecuted and its members, at least ridiculed, and at most, genocide by an uninformed society, such as in Nazi Germany. Freemasonry as a whole is not accepted world-wide. Shortly after the official founding of Freemasonry, in 1717, there were a myriad of governments who banned Freemasonry, starting with Holland in 1735 and including Sweden, Geneva, Zurich, Berne, Catholic Spain, Portugal, and Italy, through 1738. Bavaria followed in 1784; Austria in 1795; Baden in 1813; Russia in 1822. It was also banned in Pakistan in 1972.³

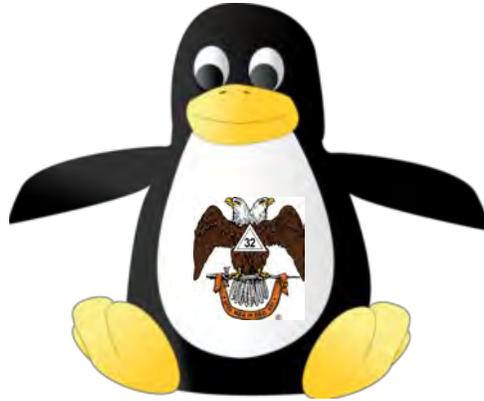

Although many of these countries have rescinded their bans over the past few centuries, there are still places in our modern 21st century world that ban Freemasonry. One need only look to our own Denver Consistory Brother, the Representative of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge in Iran (in exile), Hugh Ferdows, to see the results of such bans, which are a result of the lack of such freedoms as we enjoy here in America.

It is heartening to know that we live in a country that allows the freedom to express ideas and beliefs that are otherwise repressed and denied. Freedom is the heart of forward movement and the enemy of oppression and tyranny. In summation, I can think of one word, put into the glorious context of the final chapter of a great Scottish patriot; a lover of freedom and fighter of oppression. And, as this is, after all, the Scottish Rite, it is only fitting that I quote Mel Gibson as William Wallace in the great and epic movie that started a world-wide shortage of kilts, BRAVEHEART.

FREEDOM!

FUN FACTS ABOUT JUNE

The month of June is named for the Roman Goddess JUNO - their Goddess of Marriage. Perhaps that is one of the reasons so many weddings today are held in June? Like the month of May, no other month in the year begins or ends on the same days as June.

- June 6th commemorates D-Day (WWII)
- June 14th is Flag Day, and the U. S. Army Birthday
- 3rd Sunday in June is FATHER'S DAY
- June 21st is the Summer Solstice - the longest day of the year
- June is celebrated as: International Men's Month
- National Seafood Month
- National Candy Month
- National Dairy Month
- National Iced Tea Month

The Rose symbolizes romantic love, secrecy, desire, gratitude, mourning, impossible hopes, modesty, joy, love at first sight, innocence, sacrifice, and more - depending on the type and color of the rose.

The Honeysuckle symbolizes the bonds of devotion, love, fidelity, and generosity.

Alexandrite: Health and Longevity

Moonstone: change, shifting tides of emotion, stress relief

Pearl: growth and transformation thru difficult circumstances.

Timothy N. Lambert, 32°
Venerable Master
Denver Knights of St. Andrew

Dear Brethren of the Scottish Rite:

I was awed by the performances of the 4th and 29th degrees in the Spring reunion. Both of which were performed exclusively by members and emeritus members of the Knights of Saint Andrew. They sure make me look good and I appreciate each and every member's efforts, big and small. Their efforts in the 29th were recognized officially by being "elected" (by the reunion class members) as the best degree. Brother Bobby Juchem does a fantastic job of motivating his cast members to put forth their best efforts, and I believe he succeeded. A resounding THANK YOU from me to Bobby, Larry (Assistant Director) and the entire cast. To the newest members of the Scottish Rite: if you decide to become active in the Knights of Saint Andrew, you too WILL be a part of the degree, as we try to get every member on the floor for the "toasts."

Remember, Brother Theo Jones will be providing our education on June 5, and the meeting starts at 6:30 pm. This meeting will also feature a knighting for all new members since last Fall. Families and guests are invited to witness the knighting ceremony. The education portion will be open to all Master Masons. I hope to see many of the Knights in attendance, as we will be going dark for July and August after the June Stated Communication on June 19 (Hawaiian Shirt Night).

OUR KEY TO NEW MEMBERS

THE PRELATE'S PULPIT

Rev. Jim Harris, 33^o

It's May 18 - I am sitting at my desk writing this column. We are in the middle of Spring, the weather should be warm and sunny. It is time for planting flowers, having cookouts, taking hikes, watching the Rockies, having picnics, and so on. But, not today. Today, it is cold and the snow has turned the greenness of Spring into a blanket of white. I looked at my calendar again, and yes - it IS Spring, but we live in Colorado. My neighbors have covered the flowers and plants and I have been knocking the snow off my trees. But some limbs are still breaking. The ancient writer of Ecclesiastes tells us there is a time for everything, but he doesn't mention a "time for snow."

Paul, in his letter to the Philippians, tells us to be content with whatever we have and in any and all circumstances. We are to be content and remember that we can do all things through God, who strengthens us. So, today, I am being content, getting some things done in the house and this afternoon I will go to the rec center, make use of their walking path, and then I will do some reading. I will be content and think about the lush green grass once the snow melts.

The Psalmist tells us in Psalm 104 to sing praises to God as long as we live. My Brothers, the more I grow in maturity, the more I have learned to be content, not to complain so much, sing praises to the GAOTU, and always give thanks.

Remember what Doctor Powell says—let us have a PMA (Positive Mental Attitude). Yes, it DOES work.

Do good, do no harm, and stay close to the GAOTU.

"Love is woman's eternal Spring and man's eternal Fall." - Helen Rowland

"Spring has set in with its usual severity." - Horace Walpole
